DESCRIPTION

This meeting space for 400 pax is a replica on the former main Kurhaus hall dating back to 1810. The historical building is a landmark to the city surrounded by lots of green, and traditional buildings. Up-to-date technology and full organisational and catering service are the foundations of a successful synthesis of historically unique facilities in an ideal location and with optimal infrastructure. The space can hold 1350 pax and has the latest technical equipment for a whole range of events such as meetings, conferences and congresses, and is a splendid setting for social events such as a ball or festive presentation.

The venue is a marvelous structure with modern meeting facilities and is an experience all by itself; a harmonious blend of beauty, recreation and functionalism. Natural light illuminates the space yet the cupola window feature can also be automatically darkened.

The building also houses a wide range of meeting spaces and halls. To find out about other rooms for hire at this beautiful location, contact Spacebase.
