DESCRIPTION

Our Perspektivenraum is a house with history! The location is located in the heart of the attractive, historic city of Landsberg am Lech, which offers not only a remarkable old town but also a special proximity to the lakes in the west of Munich.

The officers' casino of the former Saarbarracks, built in 1901, impresses with its unique ambience. High ceilings, light-flooded rooms and a spacious outdoor area provide the necessary peace and quiet for strategy meetings, team events or customer events. You are allowed to move freely on the ground floor of the building and are among yourself here. For group work and break-out sessions, you can spread over three different rooms. The ballroom offers the largest area with 80m² and is equipped as a conference hall. The directly adjoining salon has 40 m² and captivates by the direct access to the romantic terrace. With 50m² the casino offers space for breaks, a good catering or also smaller group work. We will be happy to help you plan your event and welcome you to our villa!
