DESCRIPTION

In its 34th anniversary, Brasserie van Baerle conquered a permanent place in the hearts of many Amsterdam-South residents and international visitors. 'The Brasserie' remains faithful to the fair

French cuisine but also 'flirts' with Mediterranean kitchens and is certainly not shying away from pure Dutch products. A clearly classified wine list offers a well arranged selection of European wines. Lots of wines are available by the glass. Popular for lunch, pre-theater dinner or late night supper after a concert. On Sundays, brunch from 12pm. During summer; pure enjoyment in the unique patio-garden. For receptions, presentations and group dinners, there is a fully equipped private dining room on the first floor. Reservation is recommended.
